VERY FLATTERING WELCOME

PRESIDENT IN THREE STATES
MAKES EIGHT SPEECHES.

In Historic New England the Crowds Surged at Times and Almost Trampled Each Other Down to See the President.

Augusta, Me., Aug. 27.—President Roosevelt today passed through three states, delivered eight speeches and received the plaudits of a quarter of a million of people. The greeting which has marked his progress through New England has been flattering in the extreme and today's experience demonstrated his popularity perhaps more than ever before. Everywhere at the regular stops and the smaller stations along the road the people were strenuous in their efforts to catch a glimpse of him or to hear him speak, and at Haverhill, Mass., this desire assumed such proportions that the crowds completely overrode the police and surrounded his carriage.

Today's journey was not without its incidents. As the president was about to board his car at South Lawrence, Mass., after delivering his address, the leader of the band stepped up and made himself known to him. He said his name was Banan, a former cow-puncher and barber at Medora, N. D., where the president's ranch is located. The president immediately recognized him and greeted him as an old friend. The man evidently desiring the president to know that he had profited by his advice given some years ago, said to him: "You told me to get married and settle down, and I did. I have got six children myself." This afforded the president no little amusement.

While on his way through the streets of Portland, the president's carriage was stopped and he was presented with an album containing views of the city. He stood up in his carriage and briefly thanked the donor, Capt. Chas. F. Dam. He has been the recipient of many floral gifts, and where admirers were unable to get near enough personally to hand them to him they threw them over the heads of the crowds into his carriage.

Conspicuous among those who boarded the train at Old Orchard to extend a welcome to the president was Congressman Littlefield of Rockland. His visit was brief and the conversation turned on other subjects than trusts. Mr. Littlefield declined to comment on the president's last night's speech, pleading that he had not finished reading it.

When Danville Junction was reached the president was greeted by Postmaster General and Mrs. Payne, Mrs.

Garrett A. Hobart and Mrs. Charles Emory Smith. Some stops were made which were not in the itinerary. At Lisbon, Lisbon Falls and Brunswick, Me., immense crowds gathered and the president was obliged to appear on the rear platform and say a few words.

Although the day was a particularly hard one on him, the president gave but slight signs of fatigue. Tonight he is the guest of Governor Hill, who met him at the depot and escorted him to his residence, where the president made a short address.

The governor's house has become historic because of the fact that it was the home of James G. Blaine and the president occupied tonight the identical bedroom used by that statesman.

HOTEL DESTROYED BY FIRE

KATY LOSES DEPOT PROPERTY
AT SOUTH McALESTER.

Newly Furnished Building and Platform Burned at 6 O'clock Yesterday Morning—One of the Largest on the System.

South McAlester, Aug. 27.—The Katy eating house here was totally destroyed by fire last night at 6 o'clock. The depot, oil house and all the platform north and south of the Y switch was burned, and all the telegraph poles were burned down for over a block each way from the crossing.

There were a large number of guests in the hotel when the fire broke out. Most of them were eating supper. The alarm created consternation among the occupants of the dining-room, who rushed excitedly to their rooms to save their personal effects. Several barely escaped from the burning building, in less than thirty minutes about $15,000 of the company's property was reduced to ashes.

Many guests of the hotel lost everything. A large number of the trunks of permanent and transient roomers were fed to the flames, very little of the contents of any of the rooms being saved.

The hotel was a two-story structure, with about forty-five rooms and was practically a new building and elegantly furnished. The depot platform covered a great deal of ground and was one of the largest on the M., K. & T. system.

"Sam" Small Was Drunk.

Brattleboro, Vt., Aug. 27.—The collapse of the Rev. "Sam" Small, the temperance lecturer, who was to speak for the no-license local option party here last night, by the Rev. Mr. Small's own admission today was due to intoxication. Mr. Small says: "I was drunk. I have no excuse to offer."
